LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Found at Lincoln
The other day Capt. J. Stone, of the Bloomington police force, City Marshal Mottet, of Clinton, and Detective Harland, of Decatur, the special detective of the Walsh system, got out a search warrant and went to the Central House, where they found a parcel of goods consisting of a cloak worth $40, a silk dress worth $50, two suits of men's clothes and a lot of jewelry. The articles had been left with John Arterburn, the proprietor, as a guarantee for board, by a man who had no money. The goods had been stolen in Bloomington last fall while the Forepaugh show was visiting that city and the pointer was given by two of the thieves who were captured and lodged in the Bloomington jail.
There is another of the thieves still at large. They all belonged to an organized gang in Central Illinois which Detective Harland has broken up—Lincoln Herald

For some time great dissatisfaction has existed in the three divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in regard to the actions of the state board, and particularly of Edward Spelman of Peoria, who is an active member of the Clon-gaal and is the state delegate or virtual head of the state organization. The Ancient Order of Hibernians has been suspicious for some time that there was a plot on the part of such members as are Clon gaal to gobble the whole concern. A strong feeling of animosity has gradually developed between the two organizations, which has been intensified by the Cronin murder developments and Spelman's pronouncement in Clon gaal affairs. Great dissatisfaction has arisen from the enormous state assessments for life insurance purposes which have been levied. Last Sunday divisions Nos. 1, 2 and 3, of Bloomington, followed the example of Nos. 1, 2 and 4 of Peoria and seceded from the state organization. It is likely that the organizations of Clon-gaal and Merri in McDonough county will follow the example of the Bloomington Hibernians, if they have not already done so.
It is understood that the seceding organizations all remain loyal to the national organization and will take steps to hold a convention and form an independent state organization.

By a unanimous vote the Terre Haute Footing Association has decided to hereafter allow no games of chance or gambling device at any of its meetings of the Association. This does not apply to pool selling. The profits of the past season—something over $9,000—will go towards erecting a new grand stand. W.
J. Huns, one of the owners of Astell, was re-elected president. Astell is now here, being cared for at Mr. Jams' stable.

Bullard's Snow Liniment.
This wonderful liniment is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Lakes to the Gulf.
It is the most penetrating Liniment in the world. It will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Wounds, Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, Sore Throat, Sore Chest and all inflammation, after all others have failed. It will cure Rabid Wounds and heal all wounds where no other flesh has set in. It is equally valuable for animals. Try it and you will not be without it. Price 50 cents.

One too Journal: The hideous scandal that is shortly to receive full ventilation in the public courts of London will shake English society to its foundation.
The names of some of the men implicated in it are among the "princes" in the kingdom, and unless the government which has already thrown the mantle of its protection over the culprits, manages to still further shield them from the consequences of their offense, a punishment proportionate to the enormity of the offense will be meted out to the guilty ones. With such a scandal as this damning the aristocracy before their eyes, it will be no wonder if the people of England regard their cry for the abolition of a degenerate house of peers, and keep the drum up until it is swept out of existence.

Held upon the revolution in Brazil came the intelligence of a movement in Australia for an independent federation, and now hot from the wires comes a rumor of movements in Spain resting so lightly as of yore. Revolution seems to be in the air of monarch ridden countries, and the bird of freedom is striking. Let her shriek.

DIPHTHERIA AND ITS TREATMENT

Cause, Prevention and Cure of this Dread Disease—The Cure Perfectly Simple

A correspondent has the following to say about diphtheria and its treatment:
"Knowing that diphtheria is very prevalent throughout the land, and knowing that the majority of people are very poor at the present time and fail to call in medical assistance until it is too late, allow me to give the grief-stricken parents a word of advice. Diphtheria consists of bilious and quadrillions of little animals resulting in the blood of the patient.
These creatures are so small that it requires a microscope to make a speck visible to the naked eye. They are the very cause of impure blood, and in some cases are inherited, in others they are the result of bad food, water, air, etc. They multiply very fast. When very numerous they ruin the throat, which is their burying place. The throat becomes rapidly inflamed and diphtheria is firmly established. The following will be found a valuable remedy for the disease. Take a blanket, dip it in hot water, wring it out, wrap the patient in it, cover him well to bring out a high perspiration.
Apply cloths dipped in cold water to his throat and head. After half an hour rub him well all over, wrap him in a dry warm blanket, cover him well, keep up a general perspiration all night, or day, and the little animals which have taken charge of the throat, and who love heat only, will leave the cold, wrung out, for the hot skin, and depart through the pores and the patient is well. In desperate cases second treatment may be necessary.

Two senators after one term of service have been as anxious to step down as William M. Dewart is understood to be.
The New Yorker, it is true, will be 73 years of age when his term ends on March 4, 1901, but he is much younger than a few other members of the branch of the national legislature, and his physical and mental powers are still vigorous.
Fortunately, New York has several capable men who can be induced to take the office, and thus keep the state's quota complete.

ACCUSED BUT NOT CONVICTED.

OUR competitors are kindly helping us at their expense, to advertise and spread the news, that we are selling out to quit. They have accused the people who buy of us of being fools. (See their ads. in Herald Nov. 17, and other papers). We are selling better Boots and Shoes than those men (who charge the people—our customers—with being fools), have got in their stores, and we are selling them for less money than they can buy them; that's what sets them crazy, and causes them to abuse the people that they say they want to continue making their living off of in future. I was in Decatur 21 years and have sold more good boots and shoes in that city than any other man now living. All my enemies are reduced down to three or four in number, and their only grievance is that I have supplied goods to the people at low prices. I am so situated as to be able to do it and the people and my competitors all know that I clinch what I say by making the low prices on the goods. Over one hundred have expressed the hope in the last few days that I would not remove my shoe business from Decatur. I shall at least stay there long enough to make it hot for those competitors who accuse my customers of being fools.

PLEASED WITH DECATUR.

A Visitor Figuring on Planting a Barrel Factory at This Point.

This week a gentleman from Tennessee has been in Decatur figuring on locating a barrel factory at this point. He had heard of Decatur's favorable location last summer through one of our citizens whom he met on a train between Louisville and Indianapolis, and as soon as he could get away from business at home he paid this city a visit. He is very favorably impressed with Decatur as a shipping point, and if the railway rates are agreeable he will plant his barrel factory here.

His business in Tennessee is quite extensive, but in order to save freight rates he has decided to establish a factory at some live town in Illinois. He is engaged in the enterprise of making whisky and pickle barrels and sells them at wholesale. He has a factory at Flint, Mich., and barrels made there are shipped to Chicago and other points. If he selects Decatur as a factory point, he will give steady employment to 50 to 75 men. He was at Springfield yesterday.

Mayor's Proclamation.
MAYOR'S OFFICE,
DECATUR, ILL., Nov. 22, 1889.
In accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States and the Governor of Illinois, I hereby call upon the people of Decatur to observe Thursday, November 22nd as a day of Thanksgiving, and abstaining from all secular occupations, to assemble at their places of worship and render thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the year.
MAYOR.

DECATUR a "Reading Circle" letter Mr.
E. A. Gastman sent to Mrs. Lottie H.
Meredit at Peoria, was delayed in the receiving office a short time, because the envelope was not properly addressed, the Peoria postmaster and the Peoria papers are involved in a racket over the incident.
The carrier delivered the letter safely on his second trip out of the office, and yet the Democratic papers raised a row over the case. Such little delays pass by unnoticed in Decatur, and if somebody else gets into a racket, there is no public racket. Peoria is entirely too particular.

The Brambles on Top.
The Bramble tribe appear to be ahead in the line of performance for postmasters.
S. A. Bramble, one of the editors of the Gazette, at Kentland, Ind. has been appointed postmaster at Kentland. He is a nephew of W. H. Bramble, of this city.
Edward Bramble, son of Henry Bramble, of St. Louis, and another nephew of W. H. Bramble, is in charge of the post-office at Little Rock, Ark., to which he was lately appointed. The information is conveyed to Mr. Bramble in a letter from E. S. Wilson, of Ironton, Ohio, who is a brother of Hon. James F. Wilson, United States Senator from Iowa.

McCallough—Wolgamot Wedding.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Daily Review, of Spokane Falls, Wash., dated November 17, containing a long account of the wedding of Mr. Frank T.
McCallough and Miss Dot Wolgamot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wol-gamot, and niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. R.
Rice, of Decatur. The marriage occurred in All Saints' Episcopal church on Thursday, November 14, Rev. C. B. Crawford officiating. Mrs. Harry Baxter played the wedding march, and Charles Helmle, of Springfield, Ill., and Edward Brown, of California, were the ushers.
The bride's dress was of heavy pure white faille silk with train, bridal veil, pearl necklaces, and bouquet of bridal roses. Mrs. Wolgamot wore a black silk velvet, long train, point lace and diamonds. The groom, who is finely educated and possesses rare business qualifications, is connected with one of the leading banks at Spokane Falls. The couple went to California on their bridal tour. Mrs. McCallough is personally known to scores of our people. She often visited the Rice family when their home was at Springfield, Ill.

Property Sold.
Mrs. August Karski, sold at administratrix sale yesterday at the foot of the the crib.

John McKenna, master mechanic of the I. D. & W. railroad, was in the city investigating the cause of the switch being open in the I. D. & W. yards yesterday morning which caused the engine of No. 1 passenger to be pretty badly smashed.

A. B. Chamption, late of Nebraska, has returned with his family to Zion to reside. Mr. C. was in the Federal service as a member of the 116th Illinois regiment and once owned a farm in Mr. Zion before he came west several years ago. He has a lot of cattle in Nebraska.

THINKS "MURDER WILL OUT"

The Mother of Jack Faunce Consoled with this Thought.

Jack Faunce is in the Joliet penitentiary for life for the murder of Mat Mc-Kinley.
"Will he stay there?" was a question put to one of the attorneys for the defense this morning.

"I think he will," was the reply, "but we have four months in which to file our bill of exceptions. Still we can't do anything without money, and there is none in sight. We have many good points on which to take the case to the supreme court, but in the absence of money we are powerless to do anything. Possibly Cash Faunce, who is in jail serving out his sentence of 30 days for contempt of court, will make an effort to raise the necessary funds when he is discharged.

He says he will." The attorney added "The mother of Jack, who firmly believes her son is innocent, and so do we, con-soles herself with the thought that the guilty man will reveal himself sooner or later, and then her son will be a free man.
She firmly believes that 'murder will out' in some mysterious manner."

"If a new trial is secured," continued the attorney, "we will run that pistol down if possible. It ought to have been at the trial, but we could trace it no further than Chicago on its way from the factory." The lawyer seemed to think that if the purchaser of that pistol could be located important developments would be the result.

Death of a Brother

The foreman Mrs. W. H. Bramble received a telegram from Lafayette, Ind., conveying the sad intelligence of the death of her brother, Jack Shyback, a wealthy farmer residing near Lafayette.
He died last night. The deceased was a brother of Col. Shyback, who was killed at St. Louis by Editor Cookerill, now of New York. Mrs. Bramble will attend the funeral.

Home From the Hunt

Circuit Clerk McCallahan, Thomas Lord, J. R. Miller, W. E. Bingham, J. M.
Barnes and other members of the Decatur party who have been camping out and hunting in Missouri for a month lacking a day, arrived home last night.
They didn't have the best of luck. S.
Davis May and Mr. Lord were the only members of the party who killed deer.
They got one each. Small game was plentiful.

The Brown-Hopkins Sale.

There was a joint sale of stock at the John A. Brown farm near Mt. Zion yesterday, which was well attended, bidding spirited. The property was owned by J. A. Brown and S. S. Hopkins, and the

JAMES C. LAKE, who a horse from Quincy and Hannibal, had no trouble to find material witnesses to appear against Zed Kennard, the horse thief, who will have his trial at Sullivan next week—probably on Wednesday.

There was a fair audience at the Grand last night to witness the familiar scenes and incidents of "A Tin Soldier." The play was presented in a very creditable manner by Miss Hawthorne, Paul Dresser, Miss Unsay, Miss Bloodgood and Louis Wesley, but there seemed to be a little too much horse play by Rats.

THE $15 milk dress pattern lost by Driver Thomas out of Linn & Scruggs delivery wagon, was picked up in the fifth ward by a boy. It has been restored to the firm.

A TRAVELING man startled the people at the depot this morning by exclaiming "Decatur needs a new depot very badly." He surely was slightly off in his uper-story.

This morning a marriage license was issued to William R. Trambler, of Long Creek, and Miss Mollie Wilson, of De-catu.

CARMICHAEL, at 126 South Main street, has a fine lot of Bluefield bananas and Malaga grapes.

"The Tin Soldier" company went to Danville this morning.

WILLIAM COOK, of Cerro Gordo, has just been granted a pension.

As Low as Anybody Phil Blenz does not turn his back to any butcher in Decatur in the matter of low prices. No matter where any of them get their beefs, whether they are raised and slaughtered in Macon county, or fed on the buffalo grass of the plains and killed in Chicago or St. Louis, Phil is ready to meet their price and offer to his customers the best of Macon county beef.

in the morning as you for Sunday, and see the cow, ton, pork and veal, ham, sausage, displayed there, and you will be convinced that he knows what kind of an immense to buy. And when your bill is made up you will find it as low as any other butcher will make it.
